AGREEMENT OF BACHELOR AND MASTER DEGREE COLLABORATION

BETWEEN

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT STONY BROOK

STONY BROOK, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

AND

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN – SHANGHAI JIAO TONG UNIVERSITY JOINT INSTITUTE,

SHANGHAI JIATONG UNIVERSITY

SHANGHAI, THE PEOPLE’S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

In recognition of the importance of international education and particularly to expand ties between the two institutions, the State University of New York at Stony Brook, the United States of America (hereinafter SBU), and the University of Michigan - Shanghai Jiao Tong University Joint Institute, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, the People's Republic of China (hereinafter JI), agree to develop and administer a cooperative two-degree program for undergraduate students initially admitted to JI. This Program is specifically designed to enable qualified participants from JI, as determined by both universities, to enter a Bachelor’s and Master’s Degree Collaboration (hereafter Program) after a minimum of three years of undergraduate course work at JI. Students in the Program will earn a bachelor’s degree from JI and a master’s degree from SBU upon successful completion of the respective requirements.

Nominations

JI must seek prior consent of SBU academic department(s) for respective disciplines of study. The number of undergraduate students to be nominated each year shall be determined by mutual consent. Admitted students to the Program are expected to complete at least three years at JI prior to coming to SBU. Supporting documentation of nominations including credentials, complete academic records, a student personal statement, letters of recommendation, and any other additional requirements will be made available to SBU’s International Academic Programs and Graduate School by April 1 for fall admissions and October 15 for spring admissions.

Requirements

The minimum GPA requirement is 3.0 on a 4.0 grade scale unless otherwise required by a department. To be considered for admission, all applicants are required to provide a minimum TOEFL score of 85 on the internet-based test or a minimum IELTS score of 7 (no subsection below 6). JI students may be admitted without taking the TOEFL or IELTS tests, but such students must still meet SBU’s English language competency requirements in order to be a Teaching Assistant. Students must have completed all pre-requisites as designated by the Program.

Visas

SBU shall assist JI students to obtain visas (F1) and other documents required for entry to the U.S. To comply with the U.S. regulations, JI students shall be required to provide a guarantee that they have financial resources sufficient to meet all expenses.

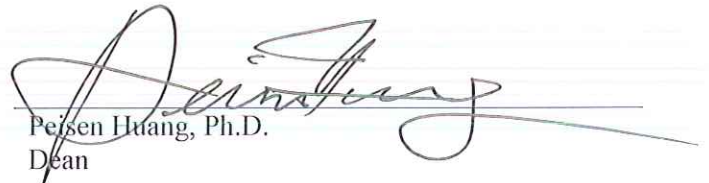

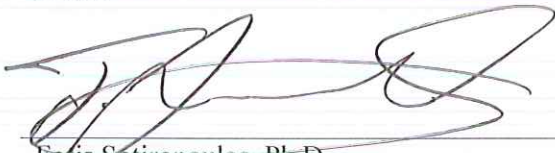

Duration and Termination of Agreement

This Agreement is established for a period of five years, effective on the date of the last signatory. At the end of each five-year period, it will be automatically renewed by mutual agreement for an additional five years, unless JI or SBU provide written notification of a decision of non-renewal prior to the expiration date. A minimum period of six months notice will be required from either party wishing to terminate the Agreement. In the event of termination, all commitments to students participating in the program will be honored by relevant parties.
