

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

on the

2017 GLOBAL SUMMER INSTITUTE PROGRAM

between

STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY
STONY BROOK, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

and

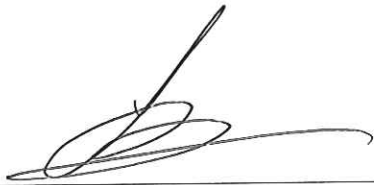

MINISTRY OF HIGHER EDUCATION OF MADAGASCAR

Stony Brook University (hereafter referred to as SBU) and the Ministry of Higher Education of Madagascar (hereafter referred to as MHEM) confirm the following:

1. MHEM will recommend two students for admission to the Global Summer Institute Option 1 Certificate Program at SBU from July 10 through July 28, 2017.
2. The Option 1 Certificate Program will consist of 16 hours per week of instruction on American Culture and Society, International Business, Leadership Skills and Training, and English language for a total of 48 hours of instruction. SBU will also prepare a variety of special lectures and cultural activities for the students.
3. SBU will pay $5,748 per student for the following expenses on location in New York for the two MHEM students:

$3,449 Program and University fees
$2,010 Housing from July 9 - July 29, 2017
$109 Health Insurance
$180 Food stipend

4. MHEM will pay for roundtrip airfare between Madagascar and New York City for their two students. Students are expected to arrive by July 9, 2017 and must check-out of the dormitory and depart SBU on July 29, 2017.
5. Other matters:
 - 1) For the duration of the course, SBU will make the utmost effort to protect the physical welfare and possessions of the MHEM students.
 - 2) MHEM will not send any course leaders to SBU. SBU will be responsible for speedily taking appropriate measures should MHEM students suffer from illness or accident during the course. In the case of emergency, SBU will contact MHEM, and the most appropriate course of action will be discussed.
 - 3) MHEM students are required to enroll in the insurance offered by SBU (overseas travel accident insurance is not adequate.)
 - 4) Should any other issues relating to the course arise, all necessary decisions will be made after discussion between the two Parties.
