

Academic Exchange Agreement Between
Stony Brook University
New York, United States of America
And Dongguk University
Seoul, Korea

In order to promote the development of scholarly exchange and cooperation between the two institutions, Stony Brook University, hereinafter denominated SBU, and Dongguk University; hereinafter denominated DU, agree to accept the academic exchange agreement as follows:

Both SBU and DU establish close contacts and coordination, based upon the principles of mutual respect, independent equality, and mutual interest, and promote the exchange and cooperation between the two institutions in the scholarly, educational, and cultural fields.

Both SBU and DU will promote the following academic exchanges:

1. Exchange of scholars, researchers, and students in fields of specific interest to both institutions.
2. Collaborative research, joint symposia, lectures, and conferences.
3. Exchange of educational resource materials and publications that are of mutual interest to both institutions.
4. Other exchange matters and cooperation based upon the mutual understanding between the two sides.

The basic principle governing the funding of this Academic Exchange Agreement shall be that each institution shall cover the costs of its own participants and exchange of materials in the aforementioned programs. In specific cases, this principle can be adjusted by mutual agreement.

The Office of Study Abroad and International Exchanges of SBU and The Office of International Relations of DU will be responsible for the administration and implementation of this agreement on behalf of SBU and DU, respectively.

This agreement shall take effect during the academic year 2002-2003, and will continue for five years, at the end of which it may be renewed again by prior written agreement. This agreement may be ended by either institution at any time provided that the institution gives written notice of intention at least six months prior to ending the agreement.

The agreement has been accepted by the President of Stony Brook University, New York, United States of America and the President of Dongguk University, Seoul, Korea.
