AGREEMENT
PURDUE UNIVERSITY AND STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY

Stony Brook University (SBU) agrees to accept qualified Purdue University students into its study abroad program in Madagascar.

Stony Brook University will administer the program, provide liaison with the host institution (if applicable), and provide orientation materials to participating students. Upon the conclusion of the program, Stony Brook University will send Purdue students instructions on how to request that their transcripts be sent from the SBU Registrar to the Study Abroad Office at Purdue University.

The Purdue University Study Abroad Office will screen the applicants and prompt approved applications to apply via Stony Brook University's online study abroad application. SBU will make the final selection of program participants.

Stony Brook University will inform Purdue by February 1st each year of the program fees corresponding to the summer and fall sessions of the same year. The fees will include tuition, college fees, international health insurance fees, and the program fee (housing, three meals per day, and group excursions).

Purdue student participants will remain enrolled at Purdue and will pay a study abroad fee to Purdue. Stony Brook University will bill the students directly for the fees mentioned.

Stony Brook University will inform the Purdue University immediately as to any change in the enrollment status of the Purdue student(s).

This agreement, effective on the date of the last signature, is entered into as a document of working cooperation between the academic offices involved at Purdue University and Stony Brook University. The terms of this agreement may only be changed or modified by written amendment signed by the authorized representatives of both Stony Brook University and Purdue University. Either Stony Brook University or Purdue University may terminate this agreement providing the other gives written notice of its intent to terminate. The terminating party will give notice at least 1 year prior to the effective date of the termination. Termination will not affect exchanges in effect prior to the effective date of the termination.
