

STUDENT EXCHANGE APPENDIX
to the
MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between
ECOLE DES HAUTES EN SCIENCES SOCIALES
and
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT STONY BROOK

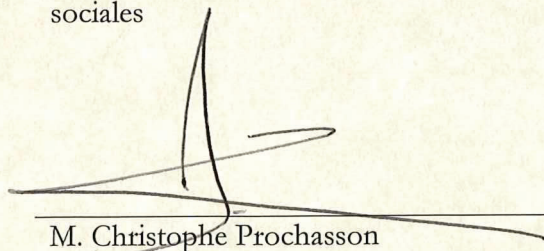

In accordance with Section II of the Memorandum of Understanding between the Ecole des hautes études en sciences sociales [School for Advanced Studies in the Social Sciences] (hereinafter YCU) and the State University of New York at Stony Brook (hereinafter SBU), the following mechanisms designed to encourage and facilitate the exchange of doctoral students (“visiting students”) are hereby established:

1. Students are to be exchanged for one full academic year or for one semester unless otherwise agreed.
2. Starting in the 2021-2022 academic year and continuing for the duration of this agreement, up to three (3) visiting students per year from SBU can be hosted to study at EHESS, and up to three (3) visiting students from EHESS per year can be hosted to study at SBU.
3. Visiting students from EHESS will be hosted by SBU as J1 Exchange Visitors (Scholars) and will follow associated guidelines.
4. Initial selection of students will take place at the home institution; however, the host institution reserves the right to reject candidates.
5. Student application should be received at the host institution at least six (6) months in advance of the start date. Eligible students are graduate students who are enrolled in Ph.D. program at their home institution.
6. The visiting students who participate in this exchange program pay the enrollment fees in their home institution and are exempted from paying enrollment fees in the host institution.
7. The host institution will provide no financial support for the visiting students.
8. The visiting students are responsible for arranging the accommodation and their own housing and meal costs.

9. Visiting students shall be required to enroll in the mandatory insurance program of the host institution and shall be responsible for all deductible costs related to health care services.
10. The host institution provides academic assistance to the visiting students during their stay. Students shall have a specific objective sponsored by the host institution, such as to conduct research, teach, or consult.
11. The visiting students may be able to audit classes at the host institution with departmental consent.
12. The visiting students will not be degree candidates at the host institution.
13. The visiting students shall comply with all rules and regulations of the host institution, including relevant academic and conduct requirements.
14. Neither institution shall be liable for the acts of the other or for the acts of students participating in this exchange.
15. The host institution shall assist visiting students to obtain visas and other documents required for entry to the host country. To comply with host country regulations, exchange students may be required to provide a guarantee that they have financial resources sufficient to meet all expenses.
16. This Appendix shall be in effect for the same period as the Memorandum of Understanding and may be adjusted in writing upon mutual agreement of the two parties. For matters not covered in Appendix, the universities shall consult their Memorandum of Understanding.

The following parties have executed this Appendix as of the dates set forth below.
