

STUDENT EXCHANGE AGREEMENT to the
MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT STONY BROOK and
HONG KONG BAPTIST UNIVERSITY

In accordance with Section II of the Memorandum of Understanding between the State University of New York at Stony Brook, hereinafter SBU, and Hong Kong Baptist University, hereinafter HKBU, the following mechanisms designed to encourage and facilitate the exchange of undergraduate students are hereby established:

1. Students are to be exchanged for one full academic year or for one semester.
2. The number of students to be exchanged each year shall be determined by mutual consent no later than February 1 of the preceding academic year. SBU and HKBU agree to achieve for full reciprocity for the student exchange each academic year. If balance cannot be achieved in any one year, the imbalance in the number of students exchanged should be rectified over a five-year period.
3. Initial selection of students will take place at the home university; however, the host university reserves the right to deny admission to any student not meeting its general admission criteria.
4. Student applications should be received at the host university no later than April 1 for fall admissions and October 15 for spring admissions.
5. Each host university shall assist incoming students in arranging accommodation. Students shall be responsible for their own housing and meal costs.
6. Admitted students shall be responsible for tuition, orientation, housing and meal costs. Where reciprocity exists, the host university shall waive tuition costs for incoming students.
7. Students shall be required to enroll in the mandatory health insurance program of the host university and shall be responsible for all deductible costs related to health care services.
8. Students must be enrolled in a full-time course load at the host university for the duration of the program and in accordance with the student's degree program.

9. Students shall be free to choose courses from the full range of courses available at the host university, provided they satisfy course prerequisites and if required, departmental consent.
10. Students shall comply with all rules and regulations of the host university, including relevant academic standing and conduct requirements.
11. Students who participate in the exchange program will not be degree candidates at the host university.
12. On the request of the student, at the end of a student's program overseas, the host university shall send to the home university an official record of coursework completed at the host university.
13. Each university shall assess the academic work completed at the other university and shall award credit to its students in accordance with its own academic policies and regulations. Neither university shall be liable for the acts of the other or for the acts of students participating in this exchange.
14. The host university shall assist incoming students to obtain visas and other documents required for entry to the host country. To comply with host country regulations, exchange students shall be required to provide a guarantee that they have financial resources sufficient to meet all expenses.
15. This Agreement shall be in effect for the same period as the Memorandum of Understanding and may be adjusted in writing upon mutual agreement of the two parties. For matters not covered in the Agreement, the universities shall consult their Memorandum of Understanding.
