

Translation of Cover Letter

Samuel L. Stanley, Jr., MD
President
Stony Brook University

December 20, 2013

I am sending you four copies duly signed, two in Spanish and two in English, of the Memorandum of Understanding that has as its object to “promote activities of exchange of faculty-researchers; research activities; institutional and cultural programs; and exchange of students” and four originals of the specific agreement of collaboration, two in Spanish and two in English, that have as their objective a) promote academic interchange between the Department of Cultural Analysis and Theory and the Graduate Program in Women’s and Gender Studies of SBU and the Master in Women’s Studies of UAM-X; b) foster mobility of professors and researchers between both institutions; c) promote mobility of graduate students between the two institutions, in accordance with the procedures established by each University for student exchange; d) encourage joint research on gender, women, sexuality and feminism; and e) disclose the results of research made in both graduates program in the Latin American scope, and I am respectfully and considerately asking you to sign and put your seal on them.

A copy of each of the agreements is for Stony Brook University and we ask that you send the rest, as soon as possible, to our institution.

Best regards.

Sincerely,
Dr. Miguel Ángel Zavala Sánchez
