Okayama University

Dear Professor Hayatsu:

It was a pleasure to meet you last Friday. The program that Okayama University is developing sounds as though it would provide exciting opportunities for Stony Brook students. I am very grateful to you for inviting Stony Brook to work with you on this project and I am pleased that your personal relationship with Dr. Grollman made this opportunity available to our students.

I look forward to working with you to finalize the exchange agreement between Stony Brook and Okayama. Please do not hesitate to contact me at any time if I may be of assistance.

Sincerely,
