Dear President Kenny :

Thank you for your letter of June 26, sent to the Dean of Planning and Coordination.

I am Professor Yoon-Jae Yang at the Graduate School of Environmental Studies. Presently I serve as Director of International Affairs. We are very appreciate of your effort concerning the academic exchange.

We are pleased to have the prolongation of the agreement between our two universities for a further 5 years. Here, we are enclosing 2 copies of agreement in English and Korean signed by our President. We would be grateful if you would sign and date both copies and send each one back to us.

We hope that the academic cooperation and exchange between our two universities will be further developed.

With best wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,
